

Rasulullah (sallallahu ‘alaihi wasallam) said: “There will be people from my Ummah, who will consume alcohol after changing its name, on their heads will be instruments of music and singing girls. Allah Ta‘ala will make the ground swallow them and mutate them into apes and swine.” (Saheeh Ibni Hibbaan #6758)

May Allah Ta‘ala protect us from being amongst those people who will consume what is unlawful and be so bold to re-label the unlawful as lawful. When pleasure and carnal desire becomes the goal, then everything possible will be done so as to enjoy it, even if be the legalising of alcohol and music by calling it “Islamic”. Such persons no longer qualify to be from amongst the human race, thus they will be changed into apes and swine. They are a burden on earth, thus they will be swallowed by the ground.
