

Nabi Nooh

('alaihis salaam)

#03 - The Flood

Nabi Nooh ('alaihi salaam) took many years to build the ship. When the ship was ready, Allah Ta'ala commanded him to take his family and all those who believed in Allah Ta'ala onto the ship.

He also told him to take one pair (a male and female) of every living animal and creature. Nabi Nooh ('alaihi salaam) did as Allah Ta'ala had commanded.

An illustration of a lighthouse on a rocky island during a heavy rainstorm. The lighthouse is white with a red band and a red top section, and its light is shining out. Next to it is a small white house with a red roof. The sea is dark blue with white-capped waves. The sky is dark blue with many white rain streaks falling diagonally. A white text box is in the upper right corner.

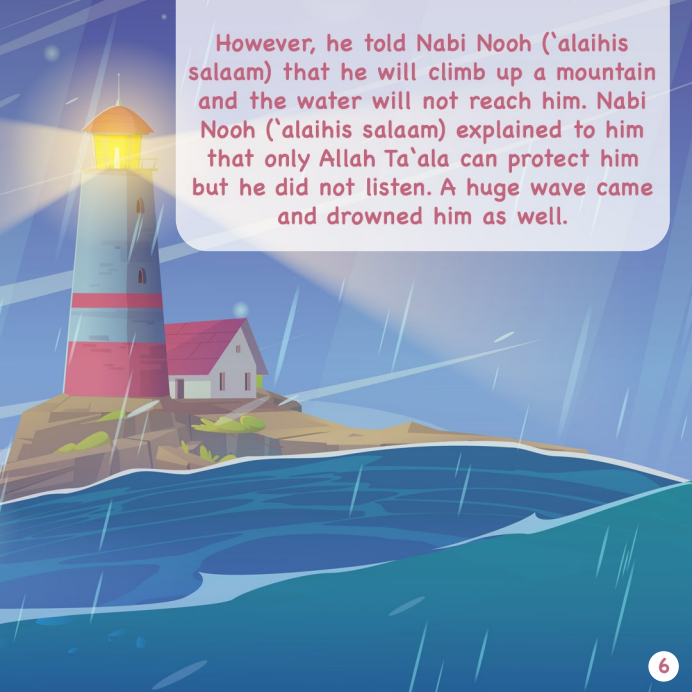

When they were all on the ship, with the command of Allah Ta'ala, water began pouring down heavily from the skies and gushing from the earth. The entire earth was flooded with water. The water came in huge waves and reached even the highest mountains.

A lighthouse with a red base and a white upper section stands on a rocky island. The lighthouse is illuminated from within, casting a bright yellow glow. The sky is dark blue with white rain streaks falling diagonally. The sea is a deep blue with white-capped waves crashing against the shore. A small white house with a red roof is situated next to the lighthouse on the island.

No one survived besides those who were on the ship with Nabi Nooh (‘alaihi salaam). This was the punishment of Allah Ta’ala so no one could escape. All the disbelievers drowned.

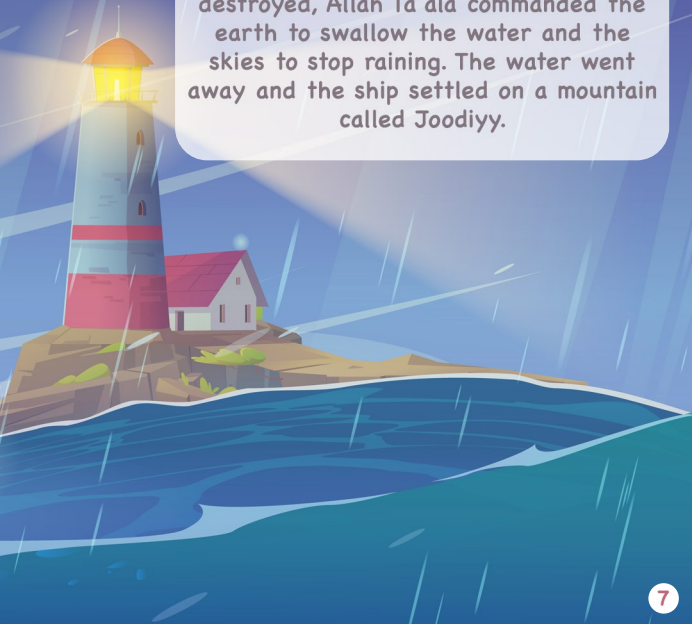

A lighthouse with a red base and a white upper section stands on a rocky island. The lighthouse is illuminated from within, casting a bright yellow glow. A small white house with a red roof is situated next to the lighthouse. The scene is set during a storm, with heavy rain falling and dark, swirling clouds in the sky. The sea is dark blue with white-capped waves crashing against the shore.

One of the sons of Nabi Nooh (‘alaihi salaam) did not go on the ship with his father and remained with the disbelievers. Nabi Nooh (‘alaihi salaam) told him to board the ship so he could be saved from the punishment of Allah Ta‘ala.

A lighthouse with a red base and a white upper section stands on a rocky island. The lighthouse is illuminated from within, casting a bright yellow glow. To the right of the lighthouse is a small white house with a red roof. The island is surrounded by dark blue water with white-capped waves. The sky is dark blue with white rain streaks falling diagonally across the scene. A white speech bubble with rounded corners is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image, containing text.

However, he told Nabi Nooh (‘alaihi salaam) that he will climb up a mountain and the water will not reach him. Nabi Nooh (‘alaihi salaam) explained to him that only Allah Ta’ala can protect him but he did not listen. A huge wave came and drowned him as well.

When all the disbelievers were destroyed, Allah Ta'ala commanded the earth to swallow the water and the skies to stop raining. The water went away and the ship settled on a mountain called Joodiyy.

An illustration of a lighthouse on a rocky island. The lighthouse is white with a red band and a red top. It has a glowing yellow light at the top, with several beams of light shining outwards. Next to the lighthouse is a small white house with a red roof. The island is surrounded by dark blue water with white-capped waves. The sky is dark blue with white rain streaks falling diagonally across the scene.

Allah Ta`ala then told Nabi Nooh (‘alaihi salaam) to leave the ship and come back onto the land. Allah Ta`ala gave him and his people lots of blessings for many years thereafter.

